

ADRIAN ION NICOLAESCU was appointed marketing manager at Caroli Foods. Before joining Caroli, he had ten years of experience in FMCG, having worked as marketing manager for Red Bull Romania, the Moldova Republic and Bulgaria, and he was group brand manager at Unilever Bestfoods South Central Europe for five years.

JOSE BONITO will be country director of Kandia Excellent Romania. He has previously held management positions in sales, finances and logistics in Portugal, Spain and Hungary.

Before taking on this position, he was country director for Central Europe.

OLIMP BARBULESCU was promoted to coordinator of the capital market department at Bostina & Asociatii which he joined at the end of 2007.

Previously, he was councillor in the National Commission of Movable Assets, having seven years of experience on the capital market.

CRISTIAN DRAGOS is the new general manager of Dometia Credit, part of GE Money. From 2006, he ran the sales & marketing operations of GE Money in Romania. He has nine years of experience in financial services on the local and international market. In 1999, he graduated from the GE Global Leadership Development Program.

OVE MATTSSON has joined the managing board of Fabryo Corporation. He is a former managing director of the lacquers and paint division of Akzo Nobel. He has 20 years of experience in top management, being president of the administration board in three companies and member of the board in other three companies in the food and chemical industries.

EDWARD DUMITRESCU was appointed human resources manager at Remedio. He has six years of experience in HR, and before joining Remedio he was HR manager at Wipro Technologies. He started his activity in 2002 in the human resources department of S.C. Generali Asigurari where he coordinated the human resources department and was also in charge of the general administration of the foreign subsidiary. He graduated from the Faculty of International Economic Relations within the Spiru Haret University.

MIGUEL BRITO GONCALVES, 34, is the new creation director of Mercury360. He has accumulated eight years of experience in advertising at agencies such as Edson/FCB, FCB Lisbon, FCB/Tapsa Madrid, Leo Burnett Lisbon and Leo Burnett New York.

ADRIAN GASPAR will be the interim general manager of Scandia Romania. Gaspar is currently shareholder and president of the administration board of the firm, and he will only take over the position of general manager temporarily after the withdrawal of Ioan Bozdog, who was general manager, and Sorin Bozdog, who was deputy manager. Between 1990 and 2000 he worked for the American ABC television channel, while in 2001 he was governmental advisor on child protection issues. In 2002 he was appointed member of the administration board of Scandia Romania which he has chaired since 2007.

Business Review welcomes information for Who's News from readers.

Feel free to contact us on 206 0680 (10 lines), by fax at 335 3474 or e-mail: otilia.haraga@bmg.ro